

The Domestic Policy Subcommittee Majority Staff of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform today released the attached report and accompanying documents. The report details the reasons for severe delays in processing the claims of disabled veterans for their military retired pay. The report finds that poor contractor performance, government mismanagement and the erosion of quality controls denied thousands of disabled veterans timely and accurate retroactive retired pay awards.

Documents and Links

- "Die or Give Up Trying" Retroactive Retired Pay Awards
- "Die or Give Up Trying" Documents Cited 1 of 3
- "Die or Give Up Trying" Documents Cited 2 of 3
- "Die or Give Up Trying" Documents Cited 3 of 3
- "Die or Give Up Trying" Executive Summary